AMENDED ORDER

Accordingly, for the reasons set forth in the Memorandum Opinion, previously filed by the court and in order to provide additional clarification and consistency to that prior ruling, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT The Inquirer's motion to unseal judicial records (Doc. 303) is GRANTED. IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Documents 294, 295, 296, 298, and 299 will be unsealed;
2. To the extent these documents and exhibits contain information that concerns the privacy interests of nonparties to this litigation, these documents shall be unsealed subject to the minimal redactions we have outlined in the accompanying memorandum to protect the interests of third parties;

3. To the extent Document 297, Ex. 30, contains discovery information protected under Rule 26, this document should be redacted accordingly.
4. Counsel shall consult and confer regarding the redactions to be made to these documents prior to the documents being unsealed and shall provide the court with appropriate, narrowly tailored redactions to these documents within 30 days from the date of this order.

We recognize the significance and gravity of these judgments for all parties. Therefore, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED as follows: Implementation of this order will be STAYED for 10 days in order to allow the litigants the opportunity to review the court's order and seeks further judicial review of this order, if they deem it appropriate. Furthermore, with respect to redacted records, if the parties do not seek further review of this decision, they shall tender copies of stipulated, redacted records to the clerk for release on the public docket within 30 days from the date of this order. Finally, this amended order is entered without prejudice to any party requesting further clarification of our directions and instructions.

So ordered this 20th day of March 2020.
